WARM UP AREA PROCEDURES

Warm-up for the first row of matches of each competition day will be on the F.O.P.

4 warm up courts will be at disposal for competing delegations

Priority will be given to competitors playing on the next row of matches.

Players may be accompanied into the Warm-up area by a maximum number of people as follows:

CLASS	NUMBER OF PEOPLE
BC1 M/F	1 coach 1 assistant
BC2 M/F	1 coach 1 assistant
BC3 M/F	1 coach 1 assistant
BC4 M/F	1 coach 1 assistant
PAIRS BC3	1 coach 1 assistant per athlete
PARIS BC4	1 coach 1 assistant
TEAMS BC1/BC2	1 coach 1 assistant

If it is necessary, one translator and one physiotherapist/masseuse per Country may enter in the warm-up area. They can't help or assist with coaching.

CALL ROOM PROCEDURES

Call Room procedures will be as documented in the World Boccia Rules – English 2021 – 2024

V.1.1 <https://www.worldboccia.com/about-boccia/rules/>

In case of doubt or any disagreement in the interpretation of the rules, the English version shall prevail.

Prior to entering the Warm-up Area and Call Room, Athletes, Coaches and Sport Assistants must ensure that they have their Accreditation Tag with them. Athlete competitor numbers should be clearly visible. Failure to do so will result in refused entry to the Call Room.

PLEASE BE AWARE YOU'LL NEED ABOUT 5 MINUTES TO REACH THE CALL ROOM AREA FROM THE WARM UP ZONE

BOCCIA BALLS

Official test devices will be set up in an area for athletes to informally check their own balls. The official ball checks are part of the call room procedure.

If an Athlete brings too many balls into the Call Room, the extra balls will be confiscated until the end of the competition.

”Extra balls” that have been confiscated, but are otherwise legal, may be reclaimed for an ensuing competition at the same tournament. These may be claimed after the competition is over.

Where one or more balls fail a ball check, the Athlete will be issued with a yellow card under rule 15.9.3. If one Athlete has more than one ball rejected during the same check, the offence will incur only one yellow card; but the Athlete will play with one less ball for each ball that is rejected.

If an Athlete's ball(s) fails the criteria during the ball check for a subsequent match, that Athlete receives a second yellow card and will forfeit the match under rules 15.9.2 and 15.9.3.

Athletes, SA's/RO's and Coaches/Coaching Assistants may observe the ball check. If a ball fails, the test is not reattempted, unless the referee did not follow the correct test procedure. (Ref 4.7.2)

For Team and Pair Division Athletes must identify each Athlete's equipment and balls in the Call Room so that if an item fails a check, it can be correctly associated with the correct Athlete. If ownership is not admitted, the captain plays with the lesser number of ball(s) (ref.: 15.9.2).

PROTEST PROCEDURES

Protest procedures will be as documented in the World Boccia Rules – English 2021 – 2024 V.1.1
